Dear Sirs,

BBC Charter Review Consultation

Your BBC - Your Say.

"Radio 2 - 88.90.2 FM is the UK's most popular radio station for the over 40's providing a service of entertainment culture and music 24 hours a day"

This is an extract from the BBC publication "A guide for licence fee payers" produced in August 1994

How things have changed in the past ten years?

From early hours Radio 2 plays Pop music, all with vocal accompaniment - mostly female (Some of whom appear to be in considerable pain!) just an extension of that played on Radio 1!

Listeners have been 'brain washed' - What ever happened to the 'Past & Present', 'William Tell' and the 'Merry Wives of Windsor'?

Producers/Presenters play their own style of music - 'plugging' new tracks' - Programmes mostly for the under 40's?

Thank goodness for 'Classic FM' !!
