

4.3.04.

BBC Charter Review Consultation

I value the fact that radio BBC is a 24h service.

No ideas about the online services

Enjoy the nature, science and Christian programmes But the Christian programmes on Sunday should be ~~more~~ much longer & more frequent.

Possible print out of services ahead of time as you do for Lent.

many people enjoy sport so keep it up.

Quizzes are good

If commercial services are profitable then carry on.

may be it would be good to have two governors with one to concentrate on regulation and listening to the public.

Attention needs to be paid to what we are told re the increase of violence as a result to the programmes portraying violence. Like wise abusive language.

Children's programmes MUST be freed of any implication of sex talk & activity. Also divergent of adults

Adverts of after 9pm programmes must be free of sex.

Can we have some examples of being helpful to elderly/disabled people.

The phone in programmes should invite comments on controversial programmes soon after they have been shown/heard.

Any questions, Any answers programmes are very good.

I hope this is helpful

E. A. Coates