

Sent: 12 December 2003 19:55
To: BBC Charter Review
Subject: BBC

Whatever happens to the BBC it should never become a commercials filled TV or radio station

It is unique in the world and one of britains greatest assets.

It produces some of the highest quality output in the uk and the world.

The license fee offers fantastic value for money, that no other service in the world can provide.

The high production values, the quality of the bulk of the progrming are both fantatstic

Simon Kennedy