Sir/Madam

I am writing to your organisation as an alumnae for the last thirty-five years since I came to the United Kingdom. I still love to watch programmes on your channels. Like myself, there must be millions of viewers. Just put aside the white-washed of "Hutton the rutton" viewers still watch your programmes.

Only one thing, I would ask if you could in the future broadcast any cyclone that my mother and fatherland "Mauritius" suffered of please. This has never been forecasted and yet you reported something petty from "Moro" recently and other parts of the world. There are thousands of us Mauritians in the UK, I am sure that you have one or two who are currently working for the BBC.
