

26 February 2004

Dear Sir/Madam,

I suggest that the BBC be funded out of general taxation, solely in respect of those of its activities (such as the World Service) deemed to be in the national interest; as for the rest of its output, it would be left to sink or swim, with the poll tax of the licence fee abolished, making television, like radio, a free-to-use product.

Yours sincerely,

Noel Oswald

Noel Oswald (Mr)