Dear Sir

I would like to contribute to the debate on B.B.C funding. I hope this letter reaches the correct address.

I watch B.B.C programmes quite regularly and also listen to radio news and some music shows, the views I'm going to express are my own based on my own observations during the last 30 years of change (I'm 43 years old)

Firstly I don't

199
like the idea of funding an organization which has so much power and has no sense of responsibility to its parent culture. E.g. B.B.C news and current affairs programmes are extremely biased politically in favour of left liberal ideas, also there is ample evidence of anti-Semitism (I am not of the Jewish faith) and virulent anti Americanism, these programmes are also blind to any criticisms of the E.U. or its aims.

This is unacceptable in a publicly funded, supposedly apolitical organisation of this power and world wide reputation (now undeserved) of impartiality. In short, if
