

9 3 4.
ET-DR

Dear Sir

I thought write and I have my say after watching panorama.

and think B.B.C1 & BBC2
should have a rethink
about some of there
programmes. Mon-Friday
from 9.30 till 12 clock
its trading Treasures gardens cash & attract House invaders B-hunt, now through the keyhole 12.30, BBC2.
Big Strong Boy. my daughter could give them a van for their money, and I dont argue with them advertising.
Since 01. the license
gone up every year

and not by £1, or £104
or £109, or £112 and next one £116, its time the brakes put on.

feel I'm S.C pay fee, but
not getting value for money we pay on the programme, on about
about digol. thats fine
not everyone got the money, nor can everyone
can go on line, myself.
just got T.V. no video.
and I'm lucky can
turn tele off go to the
shops or for walk.
but a lot of S.C
cant do that and
some of these programme
are for people who have money because they are out.

working dont see it,
maybe now and again
a film or mysterious
murder she wrote partly mass
after all, the ones
showing are repeats.
So what do they use
the T.V. license money for?
Come to that ITV1 and channel 4 could do with a shake up. but dont
pay for them,

MRS T. SLATER.

P.S maybe if the BBC put the programme
thats shown 10.35 on Tuesday evening be more interesting.

7-4-4

Dear Sir/Madam

I wrote to you giving
my comments on the programmes
now writing again to say how annoyed I was when I got my renew T.V. licence for the end of April, gone up another £5. to £12 - I'm on state pension, no way close that go £5 ^{a time} to £10
time something done in regarding the rising
price each year, there's a lot of disgruntled people out there, in regards
of programmes, and cost, a lot people be struggling
might not bother,

MRS T SLATER
VERY ANNOYED.