

12 March 2004

Dear B.B.C.,

The thing I value most about the B.B.C. is its integrity. The second thing I value is its independence. The third thing I value is its quality.

Why on the World Service do we have the news every half/hour? When I have heard it for the twentieth time I could scream.

I would sooner keep a few quality programmes than have a lot of stations of low quality. Quality counts. Classic F.M. is an example. When we hear something good we know it.

The B.B.C. is unique. Why don't you "follow your star". Quality instead of quantity.

Yours sincerely,

(Constance Thompson)