Dear Sir/Madam,

In response to your request re, BBC format. may I suggest that several important changes need to be implemented to improve the Quality of Viewing

- 1 Show Quality Interest programmes, ie "Tazuko Saga Standard, even if it means having "limited" sponsorship to fund top Quality Actors.

- 2 Get rid of the Juvenile game and reality shows along with endless D.I.Y. and interminable repeats. Good informative ~~Game~~ Gardening programmes being the exception.

- 3 More laughter Sit-Coms not re-runs of Classical Boxes.

4 Create "up" female interest programmes to Co-incide with Male "up" football and other sporting events.
Most households have more than One T.V. to accommodate this.

5 Cut Completely cheap American films, that start with the "F" word and continue with poor Acting and even poor Scripts.

6 Bring Back Music orientated Shows, like "Come Dancing" and Variety Shows.

7 Extend Sub-titles to early morning news items from 5. AM, ^{As} there are Quite a number of people about at that time who would not like others to be disturbed by sound at such an early hour.

8/ Extend the Choice of Usefully restricted Digital programmes with "family Orientated" films, Good post British films would be a Start.

9/ Include a Science informative channel in Digital for those who's penchant is for interesting Subjects not Sport.

10/ A BBC History/Heritage Channel would be helpful to educate the growing ignorance amongst our young people

I have probably rambled on with this letter, but its purpose was to promote "Thought Starters" in all Areas of BBC Service.

Yours faithfully

MR R. J. Adams Bsc.
