Dear Sir or Madam,

Re: B.B.C. Charter Review

I write to express how affronted I felt at the screening of Gerry Springer the Opera on Sat.
8th January. Genuine religious debate is one thing, but this was offensive, spitiful, systematic mockery and willful denigration of Christian belief. I believe the B.B.C. has broken its Royal Charter by broadcasting this grossly offensive show. It is inconceivable that the prophet Mohammed would be abused in this way, so I believe that the B.B.C. is selectively permitting the denigration of the Christian Faith.

Yours sincerely, Mr. P. Gray

P.S.

My children were home from school because of the snow — And we were shocked to see early on a week day morning the showing of pornographic erotica, my money is paying for this objectionable material to be shown.

It is also, against my wishes paying for a criminal to benefit for his crime in the Tony Martin Case.
