Dear Sir, Madam

I am glad to have the opportunity to write to you, so I can have my say, the licence fee keeps going up. I dont know why as we have half a day of BBC1 and half a day off BBC2 the rest is Repeats and whats happened to all the Sports Programmes, we do not even get Scottish football now, but we do get a lot of down South football. Snookers away, no tennis no sports at all now on BBC1 or BBC2. I am speaking for a lot of people here, a lot of us cannot afford the licence, let alone Sky or Cable, I know you cannot show a lot of sport, because you have to please other viewers too, and you are trying to please all of us but, I am sure people do not want to watch 19.30 films all the time either, or all the repeats that has been shown through out all the years.

Probably for about the last 30 years so I don't think the public is getting their money's worth or ever will, I do not watch much television especially the soaps, But what I think you should be looking into if you still insist to show repeats you should lower the licence fee.
