Sir / Madam

I have read your recent request to contribute opinions and although this letter is not strictly in accord with what I feel are your requirements it concerns a matter of considerable annoyance to me .

The standard of speech is appalling particularly by the " Weather Girls " and by some young ladies who introduce regional news . Should these persons not have schooling on how to speak properly before being let loose upon the public ? I could name names but I decided to refrain from so doing .

I hope you will be able to assist .

Yours truly

Richard Clark
