

I read in the Daily Mail that we could have our say.

Well I'm going to have my say.

Why is it that when their art play or any Dramatic on TV there has to be loud music, you just can't hear what is being said.

I was watching Myths & Legends
& the music was so loud I had to turn it off, if there has to be music why can't it be just background music you wouldn't go to a Concert of music & have every one chattering, it's not only BBC but all stations.

yours faithfully
P.T.O R. Couch-Johns (Mrs)

If this isn't the right department Would you please be kind enough to pass it on. Thank you.
