Dear Sir/Madam

I am writing in response to your advert in the Sunday Express today.

I think that the BBC does a fantastic job but believe that it should return to its basics ie:- good theatre, drama - particularly in the afternoons.

The one thing that I feel you are really 'missing out on' is RADIO!

People - in their cars - in the kitchen in the bath etc. Forget all this comes within their licence fee!!!

Come on Beeb remind them.

Yours faithfully.

P.S. Try to get sport back from SKY!
