

Dear Sir

I wish to air my views on what I call a very low standard of T.V. Viewing. By all channels I think you all get together and say Put that on Put this on anything that is convenient for you to start with far far to much filthy abusive language on all channels if you are to Put an interesting cooking programme on I do not want Gordon Gilly Ramsays Bad language I want Rick Stein interesting and enjoyable another one of Gordon Ramsays crowd Jamie Oliver, trying to Persuade School children to eat Healthy it would be a eat healthier if he didn't swear so much also Jonathan Ross.

Are you television producers that desperate you Ross to pay these people of your intelligence to perform in front of us and our families and I swear all the time when I went to cooking lessons I learned a lot when I was in school without a foul word ever heard you will never get through to people by shouting and cursing at them the worst thing I wish to point out is far too many Do it yourself Programmes on Friday night Peel Heavy Sat Sun family work a Friday How to Decorate your House ("more work" Sat Teenage Pop Idol they are all out Disco pubs clubs who in the House Pensioners see people and many atlas what wrong with a good Film Pool Drawing time 9-0 or 8-0 Friday Saturday Sun or a good Documentary also brace to work on Mon what a load of Rubbish on the whole the weekend

yours Sincerely
Mrs G J Heyd.

PS also fair to many People being paid to comment on football and Rugby Matches cut them out and lower
TV. Licence
