Dear Claire,

Thank you for sending me the Green Paper with questionnaire I requested recently. I am returning both these documents herewith now that I have had the opportunity to read them and realise I did not fully understand the purpose of your review.

I wrongly thought the review would be concerned with the type of programme the BBC transmits and excessive staff structure it employs to do so. It is now clear to me that your questionnaire has been very skillfully structured by a "Quang" to achieve the result you want and I do not wish to be part of it.

Yours sincerely,

Peter Gadbury
