

Re B.B.C, your say

Dear Decision Maker,

An article in the Daily Mail on 13th March by Blandia Joseph said it all. I used to enjoy Any Questions, & Question Time on Radio & T.V. but the chairmen on on both programmes have spoilt it for me. Their interference with what the public has to say, & Political bias, gets worse each week.

The Panels seem more balanced, and so why not have a woman as chair person occasionally. I like good dramas, & music programmes. Could we have less soaps. Radio 7.M. programmes, & world service etc are very good

Yours sincerely
Mrs Mary Harry.

years ago I did a survey for A. G. B. (hope that is the right initials) sending in weekly computer sheets of my watching hours, which weren't all day. When that came to an end I was thanked for my views & given a gift, couldn't something like that be done again?
