

BBC CHARTER REVIEW 2005

Response to the BBC Green Paper

Children's Rights Alliance for England questions

1. Yes. Also educate and unite people by doing 4 and 5
2. Yes. No point funding it if it does not meet the targets
3. Yes.
4. Trustworthy and kind people who wont just cut jobs. People experienced with communities and long term project management. People like Tony Benn and Benjamin Zephaniah, and the Childrens Laureate. Yes, young people should have a say too.
5. Yes. The BBC should listen to young and old people because the BBC is for all. The public could vote people on and off the Trust.
6. Yes. Otherwise it is not fair. It is the BBC not the LBC.
7. Yes. Yes.
8. Yes. Yes.
9. Public money only to the BBC not other ones.
There should be a Special Needs Channel if the majority of people agree.

ROBIN HANFORD

Age 10