

B.B.C Charter Review

13/3/05.

Dear Sirs,

As a Pensioner under the age of 75 years, I feel it is grossly wrong that I am discriminated against, in comparison with Pensioners over that age. My limited income, is subject to what is a "Poor Tax". I should have the right to select and pay for television programmes that I wish to watch. The Free licence should be extended to Pensioners of any age.

Yours Sincerely,
A. E. HARTMAN
