

14th April 2005

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.....

No time for a formal letter.

My plea is simply.....

MORE PERIOD DRAMAS
eg. Jane Austen, the Bronte sisters' novels dramatised.

These programmes are "magical"
in our ever-increasingly busy
and technologically-minded lives.
One sits (takes + makes time to),
relaxes, absorbs and is immersed
into a different era - the pace, etiquette and "romance"
courtship

so different to our modern world.

PLEASE! I know I speak for millions of viewers (not only other members of the teaching profession, of which I am a member).

Ideally, to have one period drama following another with far less of a gap between each.

We wait - with eager anticipation - and thank-you-in-advance.....

Yours Susan James (Mrs.)