

M^r E. Johns

Dear Sir,

A very small number of Welsh nationalists - racists by language - demand and get increasing more programmes in Welsh. B.B.C 2 these days substitute anything watchable - from films to University challenge - with it. In Swansea, Wales, I have not met two men or groups in 36 years worth conversing in Welsh! - The guardians of lost heritage already have 54 C.

- The snooker "championships" perhaps in New Caledonia are shown almost all year around. Cricket in Bangladesh or New Delhi guaranteed but, for Boxing I have to tune in to Eurosport Or to other channels for football championships. even European ones.

If B.B.C 2 remains unwatchable (apart from anything that does not disturb Welsh... because that would not be watched in either language) and BBC1 gives me Eastenders, Murder she Wrote (for ever) or Men Behaving Badly, I intend to find out the legality of compulsory paying for these and not much else. By withholding payment for them

Yours Faithfully
E. Johns.
