

CAMPAIGN AGAINST MONEYTHEIST AMENTIA
MEDIA CENSORS

To Your BBC, Your Say,
BBC CHARTER REVIEW.
C/o Department For Culture Media.
2 to 4 Cockspur Street,
London SW1Y SDH

Dear Review Team,

DIS CENSORSHIP

As help for the Potentially Redundant BBC staff and more important, for the Good of the Public; from a 90 year old Applicant for the recently vacant Job of BBC Chief Executive, can you please persuade the New Chief Executive of the BBC to launch programs exposing the projects on the attached Virtue/Cognitive Appraisal Party Manifesto document which has been sent to the Newspapers with a request that They publish, but which they probably will Not be allowed to do. ! As You all probably know, We English speaking people are the best Censored in the world !

As no way your fault, if only you were properly Educated, and like Politicians and all Top Status people, if the cardinal qualifications for Being in your jobs was Not the unadulterated purity of Your Ignorance of What-Little You-Do-Not-Know; the irrefutable knowledge in the enclosed documents Should be known By You, and as a Public Funded Service organisation, it should be You, the BBC who should disclose this badly needed knowledge To The Public !

Before anything is done to mess around with the BBC Staff as What-is-intended-to-be-Done: each intended project should be subjected to Cognitive Appraisals By everyone involved and By the Public, and most important, all important Notions or Plans etc., should be voted on to determine the degree of Need as opposed to anything to do with Money. In fact, because most of the Work done By BBC Staff involves other Staff, as opposed to the Public, as such, the Staff could well produce their own self-printed Virtue Currency as a measure of the Work they Do, instead of being paid according to their Job Status, and that the Virtue Currency They print as salaries, could then be turned into ordinary currency.

The Technology for doing all this is there, and is hopefully explained in the enclosed Samizdat documents, and it might be a good idea if the Writer were invited to give a lecture to the BBC Staff so as to overcome all the expected 'Cant-be-Done-its'.

Most important, Please acknowledge the receipt of this and include the name of a Contact.

Yours sincerely,

Robert. D. Leakey