

● You BBC, Your Say.

30th May 2005

Dear BBC.

I read your advert in The Times Newspaper a short time ago but have only just got around to responding. I'm not clear whether you wish to send a form for us to fill in or whether you would like opinions now? If it is the former please could you send 2 forms to the above address and one form to 224, Hungate Street, Aylsham, Norwich NR11 6TY where my 93 year old mother lives. She obviously needs the T.V. for company as she lives alone.

She has about 41 videos - mainly B.B.C dramas & musicals like Oklahoma! She has recorded some films & enjoys 'Blithe Spirit' & adores 'A Matter of Life & Death'. She dislikes ITV versions of the classics saying that "they always change bits." She finds the news boring & miserable but likes Stuart White of 'Look East'.

Personally I love historical docu-dramas, history programmes, period drama, the News & weather, Look East, Mastermind, educational programmes, short political discussions, Countryfile, Gardener's World & the off-spirs like The Chelsea Flower Show, English travel shows / Bill Oddie type nature programmes. Things like Ellen McArthur's (?) sail round the world. [How we prayed she didn't get caught up in the Tsunami!] I dislike gratuitous swearing, sex or violence.

Many thanks, Geraldine Lee (Mrs)
