Secretary of State for Culture Media and Sport

Dear Ms Jowell

Re BBC Charter Review Green Paper

The department of Culture Media and Sport has requested comments on the Charter Review Green paper I have the following to make:

The Green Paper states that the licence fee remains I would like the licence fee to be scrapped because of the immorality on BBC TV such as the Jerry Springer show. Christians should not have to fund programmes that are blasphemous.

Many people who do not receive any British broadcast TV but do receive family channels from abroad such as EWTN. I would like to have the fee removed for these people.

Yours Sincerely Anita M. O'Brien
