

28.3.05

My BBC My Say

I watch mostly documentaries. So many are spoiled by the loud noisy background - some would call it music. So often it drowns out the spoken word and infuriates my husband, also my sister complains, & my brother has stopped looking at T.V, and there must be thousands like us. Please stop background music on Television Documentaries

Jane Page.