

8-3-05

Dear Sir

I read with interest the enclosed advert. I can't think of a bigger waste of money than my licence fee. It's a total waste. I would really like to know what's done with all the money you rake in. You certainly don't spend it on new programmes. Going through my T.V. Book, I counted the repeats showing between Sat 5-3-05 + Fri 11-3-05. B.B.C1 showed 66 repeats and B.B.C2 showed 111. If this is your idea of value for money it's certainly not mine.

The money spent on the dances between programmes is outrageous and totally unnecessary.

You'd all be better
employed spending less money on fat cats, entertaining and office re-fits.

I strongly object to the present charter being extended.

Yours faithfully
(Mrs) Helma Palmer
