BBC Charter Review

Dear Sirs,

Thank you for this opportunity to voice an opinion on BBC programmes.

We enjoy - All news coverage

- All sports

- Historical

Nature

We would enjoy more Variety Shows especially on Saturday evenings.

We used to know that each September we could rely on a good selection of programmes for winter evening watching but now so many nights we simply don't bother to rely on television but are finding a good book and/or music much more entertaining. -2-

There are far too many repeats of old programmes being shown over and over.

A lot of 2 hour shows now start at 9 o'clock, whereas 8 o'clock was so much better.

I do hope many people will answer your invitation to comment. We hear so many people saying why they don't watch television nearly as much as they used to.

Yours sincerely
M. J. Rachel
