

P.S. The annual fee, in lieu of advertising revenue, is a sort of poll tax. Collected easily - it guarantees nothing as regards output quality. It was better when RP was the norm. You can see a typical

March 24 2004

0208 846 9054

example in the PAXMAN/REID BBC Charter Review broadcast Controversy when PAXO repeatedly sought the answer whilst REID continued the class struggle!

Department for Culture Media and Sport,

2 - 4 Cockspur Street,

SW1Y 5DH.

Dear Sir or Madam,

This is a response to your advertisement to-day: "You BBC, You Say". (Daily Telegraph)

I have previously responded to BBC 'World Service' at a different address, some weeks ago.

Until I bought a "Free View" addition and now watch UKTV History* often, I was more dissatisfied with the medium and its cover on BBC1 and BBC2. I still can only be sure to enjoy Monday and Tuesday (evenings only) when there is often Jeremy Paxman } University Challenge } and "Mastermind". These two programmes make a lot of sense much of the rest is dumbed down rubbish.

The thousands of excellent movies which must be in your archives are seemingly kept there, and rarely shown in the afternoon. It took "The Aviator" for Howard Hughes' "The Outlaw" to be shown once (?) recently.

Yours faithfully,

Wallace Reid

* 'Combat at Sea' is very accurate.