

Charter Review

21/3/05.

Dear Sir.

I really do not know where to start. !!!

£3 million for Graham Norton why? standards should be raised, not dropped.

The amount of repeats is beyond belief, especially daytime.

You get a good programme e.g. "The Weakest Link" then do it to death until viewers are sick to death of it. The same applies to "Ready Steady Cook" "Chinsley Harriet is no asset to the programme anyway.

As soon as "The Sound of Music" a Zulu are advertised are shown its Christmas or Easter.

The Quin programme which takes up the whole of Saturday evening is well past its sell by date, in fact its so boring I cannot remember the name of it.

Your coverage of Welsh Politics is dismal; Spring party conferences are badly covered; for example the Tory Conference this year had 2 hours on Saturday; but no coverage at all of the Leaders Speech on the Sunday.
The Frost on Sunday programme is very tired & uninteresting, the turning 2 content are good, but you need a new presenter.

"Question Time" is also very mediocre; you cannot be totally blamed for this because the government is afraid to let their ministers appear for fear of them being punished. "Any Questions" on Radio 4 is still of a very good standard, & being followed by "Any Answers" is good listening. John Humphrys & Jeremy Paxton are the jewels in your crown with good hard biting interviewing.

Until the Andrew Gilligan episode & the sacking of Greg Dyke I always thought the B.B.C. was above politics & would not be swayed by any government.

I fear it will take a long time before my faith in the Cooperation will be restored.

In closing I must say that there are a lot of good points, but under the circumstances I thought it best to concentrate on the negative.

Yours faithfully.

Murray Walker.
