"YOUR BBC YOUR SAY"

Dear Sirs

With reference to your invitation, in today's Daily Mail, for viewers comments on the BBC. I would suggest that a separate channel be made for sport as in SKY.

Saturdays have always been predominantly Sport, then Saturday evening we have "Match of the Day", if that wasn't enough we now have "Match of the Day" on Sunday mornings. Please would you go back to having "Breakfast" or "News on 24" on Sunday morning. I think these are more popular programmes for a Sunday morning.

Yours Truly
M Wells
