

E. Mrs. K. Zeglinski,

26th March 2005.

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to offer some suggestions, as requested in your leaflet pp 790 February 2005.

Here are some things that could be changed -

1. Music, sometimes loud, over riding the spoken words in Newsround, Documentaries and other programmes. A lot is missed with the music, so one misses things of interest. Also, when people are interviewed on the street, etc. a lot is lost as they do not speak out. Many people have spoken of the music in some programmes.
2. Cut out some of the violence on programmes. This gives people ideas, and some young people think this is the correct behaviour.
3. Cut out the sex on t.v. It is not necessary, and gives some young people ideas that this is normal.
4. Programme more documentaries, which is educational.
5. Don't waste taxpayers money on senseless programmes.

Yours faithfully,

K. Zeglinski
