23rd May, 2005

Dear Sirs,

Green Paper – Second Phase Consultation

IWC Media Limited wishes to express its support of the proposal, put forward by Ofcom, that there should be a new Public Service Publisher (PSP). We feel that a PSP of the type proposed will prove essential to the continuance of a broad range of high quality, accessible Public Service Broadcasting (PSB) in the United Kingdom in the years leading up to and following digital switchover. Further, IWC Media strongly recommends that:

1. there should, in advance of digital switchover, be a review of PSB and its provision within the United Kingdom; and
2. that, in the interests of plurality, any PSP established following such a review must be based outwith London.

IWC Media Limited is one of the UK's most successful regional independent producers of television programmes.

Yours faithfully,

Alan Clements
Chairman and Director of Specialist Factual,
IWC Media Limited
