

Limiting pre-release access to statistics: a consultation document

I agree with the proposals in full. Pre-release arrangements were considered often when I was involved with the CSO and then ONS in the 1990s and my view was always that pre-embargo time access should be strictly limited. I hold that view all the more strongly now that communication is faster!

Mary Berg, Canterbury