Re. BBC THREE

I am writing to state what BBC THREE would do for Television.

It would increase the spend with UK indie production, at least £25 m a year. It would develop new talent which would benefit all broadcasters, develop existing talent in a way which commercial channels could not and commission across all genres, not just entertainment. Finally it would commission at a price comparable to terrestrial broadcasters.

Therefore I am requesting that you please sign off BBC THREE.

Yours sincerely

David Young
Managing Director
