
Subject: Wenner, Richard

As a parent I'm all in favour of the BBCs plans for the Digital Curriculum They have a long track record of high quality multimedia productions which provide the floor from which commercial competition have to begin. It has nothing but the ability to ensure that the UK market is only supplied with first rate educational material.

Richard Wenner