

Judy Smith

Judy Smith is the Greenwich Community Network representative for the communities and groups in the South East of the borough. The work she does involves liaising with organisations across the whole borough. She is also the secretary of the South Greenwich Forum. Judy is a trustee of three voluntary sector organisations; Volunteers Centre Greenwich, Central Eltham Youth Project and St Mary's Community Complex. Being involved with a varied group of groups gives Judy the opportunity to work with the young, the old and community buildings.

As a community volunteer for over 20 years she has wide experience of most issues affecting the local community including health, education, community provisions, leisure, libraries, the environment and community safety.

Judy has one of the voluntary sector seats on the Local Strategic Partnership and has a keen interest in the regeneration of the borough both physical and social.

Judy Smith is interested in supporting the development of the Regional Casino on the O_s site especially as this development will bring £600m of private investment into the borough.
