Dear Mrs Jowell MP,

I am writing on behalf of the leaders and members of Al freton Christian Centre (Assemblies of God) with regard to the freedom for Christians to be able to apply for national and local TV and radio licences. In today's moral and social climate when a large amount of what is seen on television is not good for the children of this nation or any nation, surely only good can come from the freedom to broadcast good uplifting material through the airwaves. We feel that radio stations such as Premier and UCB should be encouraged to broadcast to a larger audience than the limited one that they are able to reach at this present time

Yours sincerely Angela Fox
