Dear Ms. Jowell,

I write to let you know that I believe in democracy, free-speech and consumer choice. To ban Christian or any other religious groups from applying for national and local licences for radio and TV is repressive and undemocratic. Whilst I am sure some safeguards need to be in place, to be in the same bracket as Saudi Arabia, Afghanistan and Iran in this area of religious freedom is an anomaly that needs to be corrected.

Yours faithfully,

Rev. M. A. Holmes.
