Subject: Broadcasting

Dear Sirs

Could I please add my voice to the many regarding broadcasting licences in the UK?

As a Messianic Jew I am a member of a tiny religious minority. Though we are Jews, we also believe in Jesus as Messiah.

I would ask that we be given the same freedoms to broadcast our theology as the citizens of most other EU countries; namely that we be permitted to share our views freely.

True, there will be some on the fringes; there will be some who will espouse unorthodox views. That is not reason enough to prevent people from voicing their theological perspectives. Where would that end if it were applied to politics?

Thank you taking people's views into consideration in this very important matter.

I am yours
