Dear Madam,

I understand as the Government's new Broadcasting Minister, you have asked for views on whether the ban, which includes Christians applying for national broadcasting licences should be lifted.

In writing I am asking for Christians to be able to apply in the future for national and local licences for both radio and TV.

This is a Christian Country so feel it is not unreasonable to expect to have Christian broadcasting, after all we live in a democratic country.

Yours truly,

Robin Crosby
