Dear Ms Jowell

Thank you this opportunity to put forward my views on whether the ban on Christians applying for national broadcasting should be lifted.

I am a committed Christian and a regular church attendee and I realise this makes me a minority figure in this UK society. Although we still profess to be a 'Christian' nation, very little is provided in the way of Christian news, entertainment, worship or teaching through the media. Therefore, I and many others have appreciated the Christian stations, Premier and UCB, both received in this area through digital TV.

We now enjoy a variety of cultures in this country. Every religion wants a voice for their beliefs which is not restricted by Government legislation. This is a basic human right. Much discussion has occurred since 11 September regarding the respect we should give to each others beliefs and this I believe this should be extended to Christians too.

Please allow Christians to apply for national or local TV and radio licenses.

Thank you taking the time to read this email.

Yours sincerely

Nicky Pearson (Mrs)
