For the attention of Mrs Tessa Jowell MP

Dear Mrs Jowell,

I am writing to let you know that I am very strongly in favour of Christians, Christian companies and Christian organisations being able to apply for licences to broadcast on radio and television. There are many areas of interest and certain topics of great importance to Christians that, to our dismay, are given little or no air-time on secular broadcasting. Listening to and watching programmes that reflect Christian values is very important to us and helps us to contribute positively to society. I hope you will consider my observations when you make any deliberations on this matter.

Yours Sincerely,

Michael Connolly (Rev)
Riverside Christian Fellowship, Ivybridge, Devon.
