To Tessa Jowell MP
Broadcasting Minister

I write urging your support for an open broadcasting regime in this country.

In particular I ask that Christian organisations be allowed to apply for - and in appropriate cases be granted - licences for radio and TV broadcasting. Given the heritage of this country I am saddened that there is the prospect that Christian broadcasting should be suppressed. In a country that is proud of its record of granting free speech such a ban would seem to be quite illogical as well as being unfair.

Would you please give Christian organisations this level of equal opportunity.

Thanking you.

Yours sincerely,

Dr Terry Smith
