

Hull

Here is summary of representations received in relation to Hull Council's casino bid.

Support

- We received no letters of support.

Objections

- We received one letter opposing the Hull casino bid.
- The church council which consists of leaders and representatives of its 120 members and community contacts met to discuss the casino proposal and unanimously opposed Hull's bid on the grounds that it would be socially harmful and would create problem gambling.¹

¹ Reverend David Miller; The Methodist Church, 1 July 2006