

Dear sirs

I am strongly against product placement in uk TV ,films and stage productions just to prop up the finances of failing companies (who probably deserve to fail) wishing to push their poor quality programmes and their advertiser's unhealthy products . This country needs culture not commercialisem.

Colin Andrews.(A Voter)