

London Federation of Sport Consultation Response

Question 1:

Yes.

Sport is a major part of British Society. The major events should be available to all to watch; they should not be only available to those who can afford to pay.

Major Sporting events provide inspiration to the public of all ages and status in society. They help drive up interest in sport, which in turn drives up participation.

Question 2:

N/A

I have little or no interest in other events.

Question 3:

Yes

Question 4:

Question 5:

No - having a history should not be a valid characteristic. We should be looking forward not backward. So - it has the potential to command a large television audience

it could provide great inspiration to large numbers of people

Question 6:

1) is appropriate

2) is appropriate

3) is not appropriate - this is about sport and the nation not the broadcasting industry

4) is not appropriate - sport has the greatest affect when it is live

Question 7:

Question 8:

Question 9:

Question 10:

Question 11:

Question 12: