

Public Lending Right Advisory Committee

Reappointment of Mrs Gill Coleridge

David Lammy, the Minister for Culture, has reappointed Mrs Gill Coleridge as a member of the Public Lending Right Advisory Committee for a second term. The appointment will be for two years with effect from 29 October 2005.

Biographical details

Gill Coleridge is a director of the Rogers, Coleridge and White Literary Agency. She is a former President of the Association of Authors' Agents and a former member of the Publishing Board of the British Library.

Background note

The Registrar and his staff administer the Public Lending Right Scheme. The Public Lending Right Advisory Committee provides expert advice to the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport and to the Registrar of Public Lending Right on the operation of the Public Lending Right Scheme.