

Webchat with the road safety minister

Dr Stephen Ladyman answered questions about road safety as he took part in DfT's first live webchat on Thursday 9th November.

Members of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents (RoSPA) were invited to engage with Dr Ladyman about issues such as young drivers and driving for work. Members asked questions about road safety education and training, the Road Safety Act and motorcycle safety amongst other topics.

A transcript of the questions and answers from the session is available to read at www.dftwebchat.net.
