

BROADBAND

RECENT BROADBAND PRESS RELEASES JANUARY 2004 TO DATE

The links below will guide you through to the relevant pages for:

15 March 2004

Government Brings A Broadband Britain Even Closer (P/2004/100)

E-commerce Minister, Stephen Timms stepped up the pace for 100% broadband availability in Britain with the award of 17 framework agreements made under the Broadband Aggregation Project, which brings together the broadband requirements and purchasing power of the NHS, schools, post offices and other public sector services.

27 January 2004 (Source: Community Broadband Network)

Broadband Support Network

Rural Affairs Minister Alun Michael MP and e-commerce Minister Stephen Timms, launched this network at ABC Conference (View release)

19 January 2004 (Source: Office the e-Envoy)

Patricia Hewitt publishes Home Computing Initiative guidelines
The guidelines contain more information about why Home Computing Initiatives (HCI) schemes may offer benefits to organisations and their employees. (View release)

PRESS RELEASES ARCHIVE

2003

2002

2001

Top