

Sir,

I would like to express my disgust at moves to extend musical performance copyright from the existing 50 years, but I cannot do better than to quote Paul Collenette's recent email to you. All the points I would wish to make are covered in Paul's email, so I will not occupy further bandwidth in attempting to enlarge upon it.

Regards,

Alister J Mitchell